WELCOME TO BAHATI'S LOUNGE

Step into a world where the spirit of Masai Mara comes alive through our open bar, inspired by the legendary leopard, Bahati. Featured on the BBC's "Big Cat Diaries," Bahati was born into a lineage of remarkable mothers, the most famous being her mother, Olive.

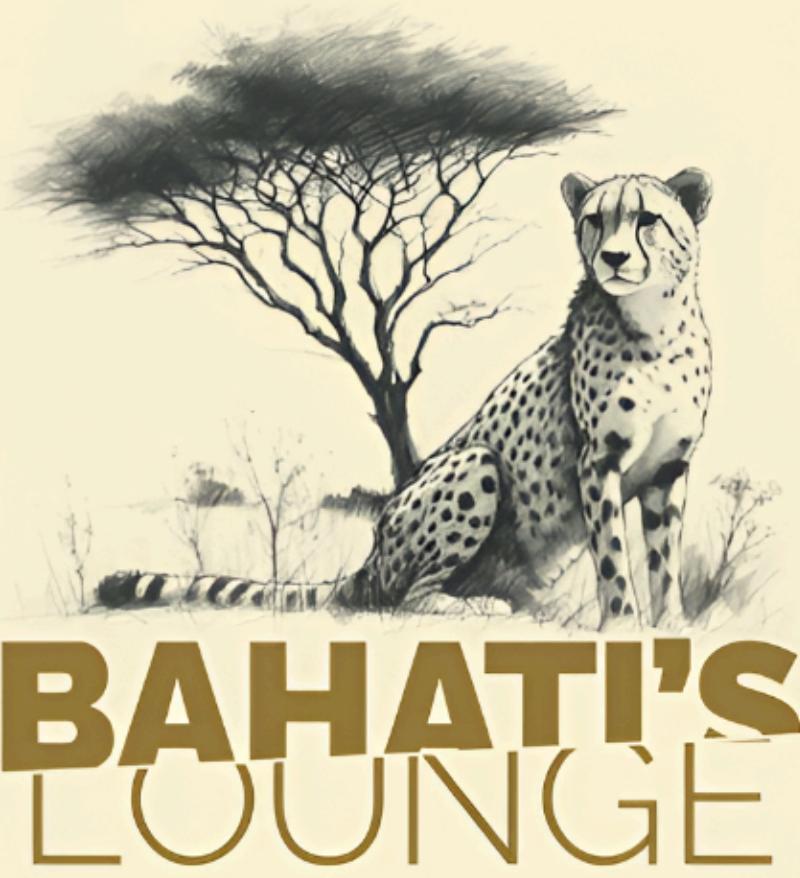

Bahati's tranquil kingdom was Ilora Retreats, where she embraced her role as the queen of the wild. Her signature trait was her penchant for napping in the dappled sunlight, a symbol of her confidence and adaptability.

Her story is one of survival, resilience, and untamed spirit. Facing countless challenges in the Mara, Bahati stood tall, her legacy an inspiration to all who sought to glimpse her elusive presence.

Bahati, the famous leopard, remains a testament to the enduring majesty of the African wilderness, her name forever etched in the heart of the land she called home.
